Re: Tuscarora Township – USDA Financing Application for Phase 1 Residential Sewer

Dear Blake,

We have been engaged by the Township of Tuscarora (the “Township”) as bond counsel in connection with Phase 1 residential sanitary sewer system improvements to be financed through the U.S.D.A. office of Rural Development loan program.

As part of your review and documentation of the loan, we understand that it is necessary to provide documentary support for various cost items listed in the application. We are writing to provide you with an estimate of the various bond-related fees for this project.

This letter will serve to confirm that our fee for bond counsel services for a loan in the approximate amount of $6,235,000 will be $41,500. In addition, the issuer should plan to budget for the publication costs related to the financing (approximately $3,000) and the Treasury filing fee due at closing (approximately $1,100).

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone, P.L.C.
